

About us

Droitwich Arts Network Community Interest Company (DAN) is a “not for profit” organisation that advocates and champions all forms of art in the Droitwich area. This includes visual arts, performing arts, photography, media, written, music and crafts. The network provides opportunities for artists to display or perform their work, and for the public to participate in various projects and events. DAN provides opportunities to share ideas, to be involved in Droitwich Spa events, festivals, various projects and activities. Members are entitled to their own page on our website, can interact via our Facebook group, and receive a regular Newsletter. Meetings are varied and held in person or on Zoom. They can take the form of demonstrations, workshops, visits and social gatherings. Events can be found at droitwichartsnetwork.org
